

You'd be Mad to Miss Moorea

Australians have opened their hearts to Tahiti, and the island of Moorea is returning the favour, offering a host of exclusive discounts on a range of great holiday attractions.

From now until December 31, visitors can take advantage of a 'Moorea Madness' card* that offers a range of discounts on transport, tours and restaurants at 23 establishments across this magical island.

Included are 20 per cent off the cost of the ferry crossings from Tahiti with Moorea Express and Moorea Ferry, 10 per cent off an indulgent Manea Spa treatment and meals in the Le Matiehani Gourmet Restaurant at the Moorea Pearl Resort & Spa and up to 20 per cent off scuba diving with la Ora Diving Sofitel or 4WD safari tours with Torea Nui Transport Moorea.

Cardholders will also get free wireless internet access and a five per cent discount on Teahupoo surfwear with Arts Polynesiens, and 10 per cent off food and drinks in restaurants at two great Moorea resorts – the Intercontinental Resort & Spa Moorea and Sheraton Moorea Lagoon Resort & Spa.

Always popular with Australians, Moorea is renowned for the stunning beauty of its rugged volcanic peaks, deep rainforest valleys and azure lagoons, and the 'Moorea Madness' value card is available through any Tahiti-preferred wholesaler.

The 'Moorea Madness' value card comes with every Moorea holiday booking made with any travel agent.

Coral Seas Travel has released short holiday packages to Tahiti and Moorea, with a seven-night stay from $2239 per person twin share. The package includes return airfares from Sydney with Air Tahiti Nui, two nights' accommodation at the Intercontinental Resort & Spa Tahiti, return airport/hotel/port transfers, return catamaran to Moorea and five nights' accommodation at the Intercontinental Resort & Spa Moorea in a garden view room with daily breakfast. Accommodation upgrades in Moorea to a beach bungalow suite with dinners included daily are available from $599 per person. Available for sale immediately, the package includes all pre-payable airport taxes and is valid for travel until May 31 and again between December 1 and March 31, 2007. Departures from Melbourne and Brisbane are available for an additional $60. Call 1800 641 803 for more detail and to book.
